

Paper Beads at the Canoga Park Library

On Saturday, December 8, 2007 Thalia, Mary Beth, & Robyn taught over 35 kids and their parents to make beads from paper and assemble necklaces. Since it was just days before the holidays, Thalia had cut strips of gift wrap and provided twine and red, green and white pony beads to use as accents. Everyone seemed to have a great time!

